

AMITY GLOBAL INSTITUTE

MODULE SYLLABUS

Course	Postgraduate Diploma in Business Administration (Finance)
Module Title	International financial markets and institutions
Module Syllabus No. (if any)	BAM405
Content	This module introduces students to international transactions and the role of foreign exchange markets. It also describes the role of key international institutions such as the IMF. Overall, it moves from the single-country focus of other finance modules and gives students an international perspective on finance. Such a perspective is vital for students planning to work at international institutions or firms.
No. of Teaching Hours	30
Teaching Methods	Lectures, tutorials, case-studies analysis, research journals and group discussion.
Assessment Methods and Weightages	One two-hour unseen written examination (70%) One 2,000 words assignment (30%).
Skills for Maximising Learning Outcomes	Reading and Research
Dates of Examinations, Major Assessments and Assignments	Please refer to www.london.ac.uk exam tables June, August/September, December and February/March
Recommended Text	Scott A, Miles D and Breedon F, Macroeconomics, Wiley, 2012
Additional Reference Texts (if any)
Additional Remarks (if any)	-

No.	Learning Outcomes/Aims
1	Understand and describe how international capital flows are measured and determined Explain foreign exchange trading in spot, forward, swaps and derivative markets
2	Articulate and evaluate issues arising from the use of different foreign exchange policies Demonstrate knowledge of foreign exchange trading conventions and their interpretations
3	Reason critically with respect to alternative foreign exchange trading strategies and choose the best strategy according a set of information available Change a strategy once the set of information changes
4	Create the most suited set of information for the decision-making process Utilize real-time data to estimate and monitor foreign exchange markets and capital flows
5	Utilize professional financial tools and case studies to support decisions Work both independently and in teams to create and manage foreign exchange strategies
6	Present highly technical financial material to non-practitioners simply and clearly Demonstrate skills to present highly technical financial material to non-practitioners simply and clearly
7	Demonstrate ability to synthesise and use information and materials from a variety of different sources to support an argument
8	Demonstrate use of research skills into international financial market problems and issues

Note: All Information provided to Amity will be kept strictly confidential except for those required under statutory requirements and by government authorities and relevant university partners and accreditation bodies as part of the regulatory or course requirements.