

AMITY GLOBAL INSTITUTE

MODULE SYLLABUS

Course	Advanced Diploma in Hospitality and Operations Management Awarded by Amity Global Institute
Module Title	Project Management for Hospitality and Tourism Industry
Module Syllabus No. (if any)	-
Content	This module will introduce students to the key concepts and fundamental issues in project management related to Hospitality and tourism industry. Students will be able to use the various tools and techniques related to the project management.
No. of Teaching Hours	36
Teaching Methods	Lectures, tutorials, case-studies analysis, research journals and group discussion.
Assessment Methods and Weightages	Written Assessment 1 (1500 Words) – 50% Written Assessment 2 (1500 Words) – 50%
Skills for Maximising Learning Outcomes	Reading and Research
Dates of Examinations, Major Assessments and Assignments	Refer Academic Calendar
Recommended Text	Albert Lester - Project Management, Planning and Control, Fifth Edition- Elsevir
Additional Reference Texts (if any)
Additional Remarks (if any)	-

No.	Learning Outcomes/Aims
1	Describe the characteristics of projects and project life cycle
2	Apply the planning and scheduling process to small projects or case studies
3	Compare and contrast the two widely used networked-based approaches to project planning - CPM and PERT
4	Calculate project duration using deterministic and probabilistic models
5	Analyse projects financially considering time-cost trade-offs
6	Determine the relevance and practicalities of using project scheduling, integrating time, resource analysis and risk analysis
7	Use project management software for planning and scheduling a project.
8	Take an active role in identifying purpose, tasks, responsibilities, and timescales in a group activity. Participate effectively as a member of a team

Note: All Information provided to Amity will be kept strictly confidential except for those required under statutory requirements and by government authorities and relevant university partners and accreditation bodies as part of the regulatory or course requirements.