

AMITY GLOBAL INSTITUTE

MODULE SYLLABUS

Course	Postgraduate Diploma in Business Administration (Accountancy)
Module Title	International finance law: transactions, policy, and regulation
Module Syllabus No. (if any)	BAM510
Content	This module provides students with a multidimensional understanding of the core issues in international finance transactions. Through lectures, case studies and other exercises it provides students with the theoretical and practical building blocks and conceptual tools necessary to understand and master the more advanced intellectual challenges posed by the interaction of law and policy in international financial transactions
No. of Teaching Hours	30
Teaching Methods	Lectures, tutorials, case-studies analysis, research journals and group discussion.
Assessment Methods and Weightages	Coursework (30% weighting): There is one item of coursework for this module which contributes to the final assessment mark for this module: Coursework: a written essay of a maximum of 2,000 or 2,500 words (deadline – weeks 9-12) The coursework is designed to check student progress, extend and reinforce concepts covered and also test individual performance. • Examination (70% weighting): The final piece of assessment will be an unseen written examination of 2 hours' duration.
Skills for Maximising Learning Outcomes	Reading and Research
Dates of Examinations, Major Assessments and Assignments	Please refer to www.london.ac.uk exam tables June, August/September, December and February/March
Recommended Text	The Law and Practice of International Finance, Phillip Wood, Sweet & Maxwell (university edition), 2007 International Finance: Transactions, Policy and Regulation, Hal Scott and Anna Gelpern, Foundation Press (university casebooks), 2012
Additional Reference Texts (if any)
Additional Remarks (if any)	-

No.	Learning Outcomes/Aims
1	Describe the basic corporate, banking and sovereign financing framework at the national, regional and transnational level. Understand the theory and practice of financial regulation in a comparative context. Critically discuss the internationalising and globalising context in which corporate, banking and sovereign frameworks operate and the policies that are continuously being reformed.
2	Describe financing techniques and the capital and financial markets. Explain and evaluate the legal and policy issues relevant to the international finance law field. Explain both the practical application and underlying forces in the international finance transactions, law and policy arenas
3	Apply theoretical models to real world business solutions. Identify complex international finance problems in a professional capacity and assess international finance transactions, law and policy challenges within the wider business context.
4	Distinguish between different borrowing/lending tools (loan, bond, structured finance, etc.) Critically assess how to hedge risk using different techniques (contractual provisions, using collateral, derivatives, subordination, etc.) Communication skills (including the ability to articulate complex solutions to business related decisions, structure arguments and to effectively relate these in an independent piece of research work).
5	Complex problem-solving skills to support international finance making from transaction, law

Note: All Information provided to Amity will be kept strictly confidential except for those required under statutory requirements and by government authorities and relevant university partners and accreditation bodies as part of the regulatory or course requirements.

AMITY GLOBAL INSTITUTE

	and policy perspectives
6	The skills to structure and document an international finance transaction
7	Research skills into a financially related business problem and the application of these in the assembling and analysis of facts and situations.
8	The ability to synthesise and use information and materials from a variety of different sources to support an argument.

Note: All Information provided to Amity will be kept strictly confidential except for those required under statutory requirements and by government authorities and relevant university partners and accreditation bodies as part of the regulatory or course requirements.