Message from

Regional CEO & Chief Academic Officer Amity Global Institute

Professor Leon Choong

Greetings and Welcome!

It gives me great pleasure to warmly welcome you to Amity Global Institute as you begin an exciting new chapter in your academic journey. We are especially proud to present our state-of-the-art Orchard Road campus, purposefully designed to inspire learning, foster collaboration, and support your growth in a truly holistic environment. With our strong belief in education without borders, we are delighted to host students from over 45 countries, creating a vibrant, multicultural community that offers you rich global perspectives and opportunities.

As part of the Amity Education Group—one of the world's leading not-for-profit education foundations—we are connected to more than 250,000 students across 16 universities and over 175 international schools and higher education campuses worldwide. Our Singapore campus is dedicated to delivering globally recognised education with a distinctive edge. Here, you will be guided by faculty who combine deep academic knowledge with real-world industry expertise, helping you to develop the skills and confidence needed to excel in your chosen field.

We offer a wide range of programmes in collaboration with distinguished UK universities, including the University of East Anglia, the University of London, the University of Northampton, and Teesside University. Beyond Singapore, our international exchange pathways open doors to transformative experiences at our campuses in New York (USA), Dubai (UAE), as well as Tashkent (Uzbekistan)—broadening horizons through invaluable cross-cultural learning.

At Amity Global Institute, education goes beyond the classroom. Our new campus has been designed to cultivate creativity, critical thinking, and collaboration. A vibrant student life awaits you through diverse clubs and societies—from photography, fitness, and performing arts to culture, conservation, and sports—allowing you to pursue your passions, showcase your talents, and build leadership skills that will serve you for life.

Our mission is clear: to provide quality education while shaping students into confident professionals and responsible global citizens. We are committed to equipping you with the knowledge, skills, and global mindset needed to succeed in your career and to make meaningful contributions to the world.

I wish you a safe, enriching, and fulfilling academic journey, and invite you to embrace the transformative experience that awaits you at Amity Global Institute.

Best Regards,

Professor Leon Choong
Regional CEO & Chief Academic Officer

LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

■ Teaching Methodology

Courses are conducted via a combination of lectures and tutorials. The lessons are supported through audio-visual media, quizzes, discussions, case studies, case analysis, team project, student presentation, role plays, simulation games, seminar and exercises to allow for an overall teaching and learning approach. Amity is dedicated to ensure that every student who participates in the course will understand, interact and enjoy the learning.

■ Attendance Requirements

Attendance Requirement for Local Students (Full Time)

- All students must maintain at least 75% of classroom attendance
- Any student who has not achieved the attendance requirement will be barred from the examinations/assessments of the module concerned. Further, the Student needs to repeat the entire module with attendance and payment of the relevant fees.
- For students studying External Degree Partners' courses, rules specified by the Partners will be applicable.

Attendance Requirement for International Students

Amity is obliged to report to the Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) on international students who have failed to meet ICA requirement on attendance.

The student should not fail to attend classes for a continuous period of days or without valid reason.

- The student should not fail to attend classes for a continuous period of days or without a valid reason.

- The student should not have a percentage of attendance of less than 90% in any month of the Course without any valid reason.
- All the International students will spend at least 3 hours per day (5 days a week) within the school premise engaging in academic studies or meaningful activities (for example, classes, tutorials, project work, enrichment activities or co-curricular activities).

If the student fails to meet any of the above requirements, the Student Pass may be cancelled and renewal will be granted to the student on case-to-case basis and is subject to the Immigration Checkpoints Authority's approval.

International students who have not achieved the attendance requirement of 90% will also be barred from the examinations/assessments of the module concerned. Further, the Student needs to repeat the entire module with attendance and payment of the relevant fees. For students studying External Degree Partners' courses, rules specified by the Partners will be applicable.

Attendance Requirement for Part-Time Students and Students enrolled for E-learning Courses

- Part-time students and Students enrolled for E-learning Courses are encouraged to achieve an attendance of 75%."

■ Leave of Absence during Term

- Leave is not permitted after the commencement of the course, unless for students with valid reasons.
- Applications must be submitted online or through leave application form with supporting documents.
- The teachers and the student will work together to minimise the impact of any leave on the students' studies and to resolve any academic issues. Students must complete the Application for Leave of Absence Form either in hard copy or online.
- International students should refer to the relevant rules and regulations set by the Immigration and Checkpoint Authority (ICA) governing leave of absence for student pass/visa holders; and may only be permitted to take a leave of absence (and return home) in the case of bereavement, medical reasons or circumstances beyond their control.
- Students who take medical leave are required to submit the copy of the medical leave attached to the Application for Leave of Absence Form within the next 3 working day from when the medical leave ends.
- Students are advised that even where leave is granted, their attendance or certification for examinations (where relevant) may be affected. Students who take leave without notifying the school will be considered as 'Absent Without Valid Reason'.
- Student Pass holders who are absent without reason for 7 consecutive days may be liable to have their student pass cancelled.

 - V. Monthly Report to be prepared by the Student Management Staff and emailed to ICA.
 - VI. If a Student Pass student's monthly attendance falls below 90% attendance, a warning letter will be sent to the Student, and the Student will meet the Head – Student Management or designated Staff for counselling. This will be recorded in the Student Attendance Counselling Form.
 - VII. Apart from the monthly report, a report will be generated for the Head – Student Management of the following reason:

If there is no improvement to attendance after three consecutive warning letters (in a year) are sent, and the Student is absent from class without valid reasons, then the student pass will be cancelled.
 - VIII. Further, the Student Management Staff will also monitor individual class attendance.
 - IX. International students who have not achieved the attendance requirement of 90% will also be barred from the examinations/assessments of the module concerned (students will be sent the debarment letter). Further, the student needs to repeat the entire module with attendance and payment of the relevant fees. For students studying External Degree Partners' courses, rules specified by the Partners will be applicable.
 - X. Under any unprecedented challenges like the COVID-19 situation, AGI Singapore shall ensure all its students' health and safety. AGI Singapore shall put necessary precautionary measures to keep our School a safe environment for its students and allow its students to continue learning according to local government guidelines. AGI Singapore shall work closely with its university partners and commit resources to progressively roll out online learning tools. These aim to provide a supplementary source of learning to ensure minimal disruptions to students' academic journey.

For Face-to-Face Programmes

- Student (Biometric System)
 - a) Students are required to 'thumb in' within 15 minutes from the start of the lesson and 'thumb out' after the end of the lesson using the biometric system to record their attendance.
 - b) Attendance of students will also be marked by lecturers at the beginning of class and at the end of the class.

A student will be considered present only if the following conditions are met:

- The student has successfully 'thumbed in' and 'thumbed out' in accordance with the scheduled lesson timings; and
- The student is marked as present by the lecturer for that session

Synchronous E-learning

Attendance of students will also be marked by lecturers at the beginning of class and at the end of the class.

Asynchronous E-Learning

Attendance of students will be marked based on the duration of the logged on status in the Learning Management System (LMS).

ENROLLING AND LEARNING IN AMITY GLOBAL INSTITUTE

■ Fee Protection Scheme (FPS)

The Fee Protection Scheme serves to protect the students' fees in the event a Private Education Institution (PEI) is unable to continue operations due to insolvency, and/or regulatory closure. Furthermore, the FPS protects the student if the PEI fails to pay penalties or return fees to the student arising from judgments made against it by the Singapore courts.

The FPS is applicable to ALL students (regardless of nationality and the type of passes, i.e. dependent's pass, student's pass, work permit etc) taking courses in PEIs with EduTrust certification. It applies to all courses with course duration of more than 1 month or 50 hours.

Amity Global Institute has put in place the FPS Insurance Scheme arrangements to ensure that fees paid by students to the school are insured by SSG-appointed service providers. Course fees paid would be protected under the FPS Group Insurance by Liberty Insurance Pte Ltd (Liberty).

FPS insurance premiums are paid by Amity Global Institute, unless otherwise stated in the Student Contract as payable separately by the student. The insurance coverages shall commence from the fee payment date and cover the course duration the fee is paid for or till the course end date.

Students who seek Deferment/Transfer/Withdrawal resulting in extension of the course duration will have to pay the relevant FPS charges as stated in the Miscellaneous Fees.

Students can make their Course Fee payment at the Accounts & Finance Office in Cash and Cheque. Students are advised to email (email address: accounts1@singapore.amity.edu) and notify Amity immediately of any payment made by any payment mode.

Refund Procedures:

1. Application fee for courses is non-refundable and non-transferable.
2. Requests for refunds arising from withdrawal must be accompanied with an original fully completed hardcopy Withdrawal Request Form and supported with relevant documentary proof, where applicable.

Student-Initiated Refund

- The student completes and submits the “Withdrawal Request Form” to Amity requesting a refund with the reasons.
- The Course Administrator discuss with Department Head – SS/Designate student’s eligibility for a refund. If eligible, the amount to be refunded is calculated and gets approval from the Principal. Thereafter the Course Administrator explains to the student showing the breakdown of the refund.
- The approved duly completed form is handed over to the Accounts & Finance Officer to process the refund to the student within 7 working days from the date of request.

Amity-Initiated Refund

- If Amity is unable to run the course, the Principal in consultation with the Management Team decides not to run the course. Upon receipt of written confirmation that the course will not run, the Department Head – SS/Designate will provide alternative study arrangements to the student. If the student does not accept, Student Management Staff calculates the amount of refund due to the students and obtains approval from the Principal to give the refund.
- In other cases, like ICA student pass rejection, excess payment by student, etc, the Account and Finance Officer, after being notified by the respective department, prepares the necessary documents for the refund and gets approval from the Principal. At the same time, Student Management Staff will request for bank account details from the student.

- Upon completion of the request, Student Management Staff will inform the student of the completion along with the computation of the refund amount.
- Course Administrators will prepare the letter of notification or email with the computation of the refund amount. This will either be emailed to the student and handed to the student directly.

- Refund to the Student is processed within 7 working days from the date of request. Should a the bank account details not be available, a cheque / cash may be prepared instead for the student to collect. Student will be informed once the refund has been processed.

TRANSFER AND WITHDRAWAL POLICY & PROCEDURE

Policy for Transfer / Withdrawal

The school's Transfer / Withdrawal policy is as follows:

- Amity allows students to transfer from a Course X to another Course Y within the school. This is treated as a withdrawal from Course X (refund policy will apply) and a re-enrolment with Amity into Course Y. Amity may at its discretion give the re-enrolled student a discount on the course fee for Y. The discount may be up to the unused portion of the course fee for X. If the student is below 18 years of age, the parent or guardian's approval for the transfer / withdrawal will be required.
- Amity allows students to withdraw from a course in accordance with the refund policy.
- A transfer to another private school is regarded as a withdrawal from Amity. If the student is below 18 years of age, the parent or guardian's approval for the transfer / withdrawal will be required.

DEFERMENT POLICY & PROCEDURE

Policy

- a. Any student wishing to defer his/her studies must submit a fully completed Deferment Request Form indicating the reasons for deferment together with all supporting documents. Deferments are considered only on exceptional circumstances.
- b. If the student is below 18 years of age, the parent or guardian's approval for the request will be required.
- c. Upon receipt of the student request, the Student Services Staff will process the application. For straight forward cases with complete supporting documents, the decision may be communicated in writing to the student concerned within 7 working days.
- d. If the documents submitted are incomplete and/or in situations where further clarifications are required in order for a fair decision to be made, the process may take longer.
- e. If the request for deferment is approved, the student will be required to make a deferment fee payment for the period requested (maximum: within 6 academic months from the date of request for deferment). Students are obligated under the terms and conditions of enrolments and would be required to make their course fee payment in addition to the deferment fee charge.
- f. The student is further obliged to commence / continue the course within the stipulated recommencement date. If the student does not return by the end of the 6-month deferment period, their enrolment will be terminated, and the course fees will be forfeited. Further requests for deferments from the same student will not be entertained.
- g. Depending on the circumstance, the student will have to sign a new contract or be issued an addendum to the existing contract after a course deferment request has been approved, on the first day of their return to school.
- h. The process will take a maximum of 4 weeks from point of request to informing the student of the outcome in writing.

Procedure

Any student wishing to defer his/her studies must submit a fully completed Deferment Request Form indicating the reasons for deferment together with all supporting documents. If the student is below 18 years of age, the parent or guardian's approval for the deferment will be required.

Upon receipt of the Request Form, the Student Services Staff will process the application. The Principal decides on the outcome for Amity programmes / Others – as per partner institutions guidelines. For straight forward cases with complete supporting documents, the decision may be communicated in writing to the student concerned within 7 working days. If the documents submitted are incomplete and/or in situations where further clarifications are required in order for a fair decision to be made, the process may take longer. The process will take a maximum of 4 weeks from point of request to informing the student of the outcome in writing.

If the request for deferment is approved, the student will be required to make a deferment fee payment for the period requested (maximum: within 6 academic months from the date of request for deferment). For international students, their Student's Pass is to be cancelled and reapplied before the resumption of lessons. Students will be obligated under the terms and conditions of enrolments and would be required to make their course fee payment in addition to the deferment fee charge. The student is further obliged to commence / continue the course within the stipulated recommencement date. If the student does not return by the end of the 6-month deferment period, their enrolment will be terminated, and the course fees will be forfeited. Depending on the circumstance, the student will have to sign a new contract or be issued an addendum to the existing contract after the course deferment request is approved, on the first day of their return to school. New FPS Insurance entry for the new course period will be submitted. Further requests for deferments from the same student will not be entertained. Any payments that charged by the University partners need to be borne by the student. Important note: Deferment, suspension or cancellation of a student's enrolment may affect his/her student visa. Amity, in accordance with the ICA regulations, will notify the Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) in such instances.

APPEAL PROCESS

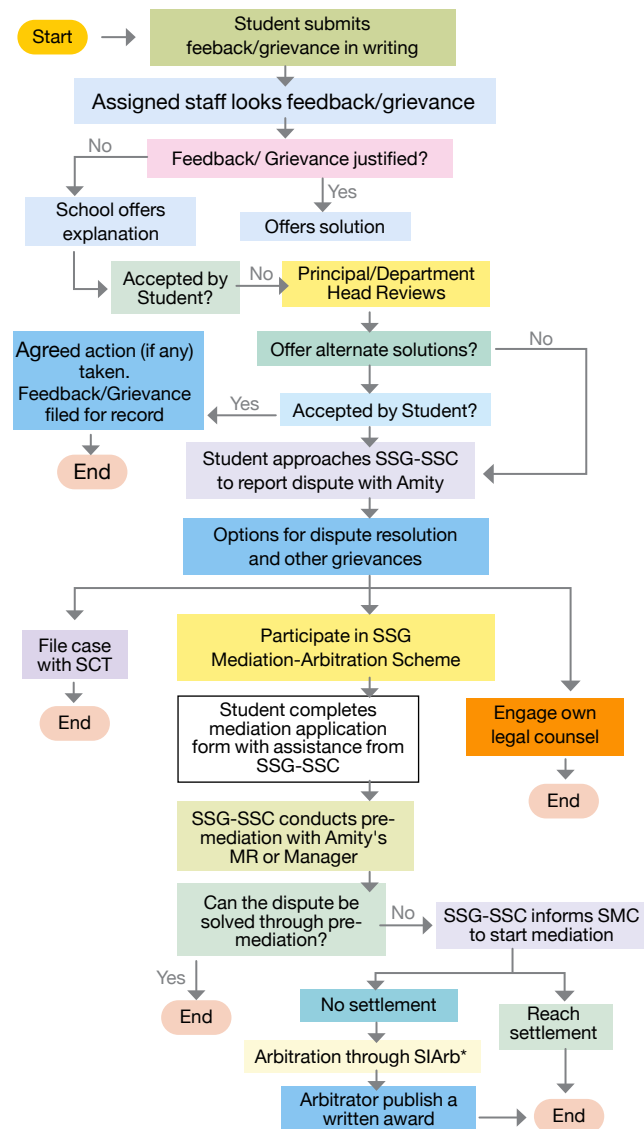

- Students who have not passed their modules may submit an appeal for review of results using Results Appeal Form through the Student Services Staff giving their reasons.
- This appeal must be submitted within 7 working days of the release of exam results.
- The Student Services Staff passes the Appeal Form to the Principal, who obtains the response from the teacher/marker on the merit of the appeal.
- Principal then submits the appeal with the teacher's response to the Examination Board for decision.
- The Principal communicates the decisions of the Examination Board to the students of the outcome of their appeal and the same is updated in the results in the Examination Register and the student is issued with the revised Results Notification Letter. (subject to any changes in the results).
- Amity works within the following timelines for processing and release of the final examination results and appeal results.
 - a) Release of final examination results – within 4 weeks after completion of the final paper of the examination.
 - b) Release of appeal results – within 4 weeks from the official date of release of the exam results (or 3 weeks from the close of the appeal period).
- Amity returns the examination scripts/ assignments to students after 4 weeks or more from the official date of release of the examination results.
- A student whose appeal is unsuccessful may apply to Amity to take a re-test (also referred as re-sit) with payment of a re-test fee. This application must be submitted within 1 week of the release of the appeal results. If the student fails the re-test, he may apply to repeat the module using the Repeat Module Form in order to accumulate the required number of passed modules for graduation.
- A student who chooses not to appeal may apply to Amity to take a re-test, with payment of a re-test fee, within 1 week of the release of the exam results.
- For each module, a student is allowed a maximum of two (2) re-test attempts (also referred as re-sit) and one (1) re-module attempt. Upon failing a module, the student may first apply for a re-test, followed by a re-module and subsequently a second re-test, where applicable. No further attempts will be permitted beyond the second re-test.

FEEDBACK AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A student seeking resolution of a grievance should follow the steps outlined below. These steps have been

- The Institute accepts feedback / complaints in hard copy (e.g. Feedback Form, letter or fax) or soft copy (e.g. email) from the public, staff or students.
- The Institute gives an acknowledgement or initial response to the feedback/ complaint within 3 working days.
- The Institute targets to resolve feedback / complaints within 14 working days. Up to a maximum of 21 working days.
- Principal or Designated Staff will make the solution known to the student.
- If the student does not accept the solution, it will be escalated to the CEO for a second solution.
- If the student still refuses to accept the second solution and before the maximum of 21 working days, the school will propose that the matter to be resolved through the Dispute Resolution Scheme of the SkillsFuture Singapore via the Student Services Centre (SSC). For more details refer to the following link:
<https://www.skillsfuture.gov.sg/pei/dispute-resolution>
- Student may seek redress via:
 - SSG Mediation-Arbitration Scheme; or
 - Small Claims Tribunal (SCT), for clear-cut refund issues of equivalent or less than S$10,000*; or
 - Their own legal counsel.
- *For amounts that exceed S$10,000 but below S$20,000, the claim can still proceed with SCT if both parties consent to it in writing.
- All feedback / complaints (including disputes) and the actions taken to resolve them are filed in the school's Feedback Register that also provides information on nature of complaint / grievance and the time taken to resolve.

*If the parties fail to reach a settlement through mediation, the student may opt to progress to Stage 2 – arbitration for a resolution.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION POLICY

It is Amity's policy to reach a fair and amicable solution (that is, a solution to address the grievance that is fair and acceptable to parties, the student and the school).

Policy

- The school gives an acknowledgement or initial response to the feedback / complaint within 3 working days.
- The school targets to resolve feedback / complaints within 14 working days, up to a maximum of 21 working days.
- The aggrieved party, the student, must submit the grievance in writing to the school.
- Amity has a dispute resolution policy and procedures that are clearly communicated to students. Amity ensures that its dispute resolution policy is aligned to the dispute resolution provision in the Private Education Act.
- Amity endeavours to reach a fair and amicable solution to address a grievance or an appeal for retention, suspension, expulsion or award. All investigations are carried out based on facts and evidences from all stakeholders.
- Amity employs a close-loop feedback and complaint management system to receive and address all feedback / compliments / complaints received (either from the students, public or staff). This involves the acknowledging and evaluating the feedback, doing root cause analysis, evaluating the need for action to ensure that the feedback does not recur, determining and implementing action needed, recording the results of action taken and reviewing the effectiveness of the corrective actions taken and to use feedback to identify what drives positive experiences. Amity also provides updates to the stakeholder during the period of deliberation before the feedback is resolved.
- For continual improvement, Amity reviews its dispute resolution policy, feedback channels, feedback received as well as the feedback management system regularly.

- There are strict penalties for possession and use of drugs as well as for trafficking in illegal drugs. Trafficking charges may be brought based on the quantity of illegal drugs in a subject's possession, regardless of whether there is any proven or demonstrated intent to distribute the drugs. Possessing these quantities is considered evidence of trafficking. This means, if a person possesses these quantities, they are deemed to be a trafficker and therefore subject to the death penalty; is a maximum of 10 years' jail or fine of S$20,000, or both as defined by the authorities. This MISUSE OF DRUGS ACT (MDA) compel both residents and non-residents to submit to random drug analysis and do not distinguish between drugs consumed before or after entering Singapore in applying local laws.

- As Singapore is a compact city, we need to share many of our public spaces. It is common for the practices of different races and religions to exist side-by-side in one locality. For example, public housing void decks can be used for private events such as weddings or community functions such as block parties. The Sedition Act and Maintenance of Religious Harmony Act preserves harmony among the different races and religious groups, by preventing individuals from inciting ill-will, division or hatred among different groups, or among those from the same ethnic group. One thing that must be observed in Singapore is not to direct ethnic insults at a person of a different race or religion. We should also not insult or defame the ethnic and religious practices of other groups, our national symbols and other Singaporeans. In Singapore, discussion and mediation are encouraged as ways to solve differences and disputes.

- Singapore enforces strict laws pertaining to the propriety of behavior between people and the modesty of individuals. The Singaporean law “Outrage of Modesty” is defined as an assault or use of criminal force on any person intended to, or knowing it to be likely to, outrage the modesty of that person. Penalties may include imprisonment for up to two years, a fine, caning, or a combination thereof. Men are sometimes accused of inappropriately touching other people, often women, resulting in their prosecution and punishment under this Singaporean law.

Culture and Etiquette

- Handshaking is a warm way of greeting others regardless of racial background. Once invited to a home remove your shoes and also while entering a temple or a mosque. Be punctual for the appointments. Exchange of cards is quite common and while giving hold it with both hands. It is considered proper to address by using Mr., Mrs. or Miss and not first names. Don't touch opposite sex as it may not be received in a good light. On the other hand don't point with your finger this is considered rude and you may use entire hand with the palm to draw attention.

Healthcare

Singapore's healthcare system has gained an international reputation for impeccable standards, with state-of-the-art medical facilities.

Outpatient Medical Services

Outpatient medical services can be sought at private clinics. In Singapore, you can find a General Practitioner (GP) in practically every neighbourhood. In fact, there is often more than one clinic within a neighbourhood. Anyone can walk into these private clinics, although you may wish to call first for an appointment to cut down on waiting time.

Hospitals

Public Hospitals in Singapore

There are seven public hospitals in Singapore comprising seven general hospitals, a women's and children's hospital and a psychiatric hospital.

Six national specialty centres provide specialist services for cancer, cardiac, eye, skin, neuroscience and dental care. There are also community hospitals for intermediate healthcare for the convalescent sick and aged who do not require the care of the general hospitals.

For medical emergencies, you may head straight for a hospital's Accident and Emergency (A&E) unit. Usually, some form of identification and a doctor's referral letter (if any) will be requested for.

At public hospitals, non Singapore citizens and Permanent Residents may only stay in A (with 1 or 2 beds per room) and B1 (4 beds) wards. The charges in these wards are not subsidised and charges for Class A wards are SGD 200 per day onwards. There are no restrictions for private hospitals which charge from SGD 310 per day for a single room. These charges exclude treatment and other fees.

Private Hospitals in Singapore

The private hospitals in Singapore include Camden Medical Centre, East Shore Hospital, Gleneagles Hospital, Mount Alvernia Hospital, Mount Elizabeth Hospital, Raffles Hospital, Thomson Medical Centre. Most private hospitals offer executive or VIP suites. Some also offer premium medical services, such as Gleneagles Hospital's elite health screening and the International Patients Centre at Raffles Hospital. Camden Medical Centre, which is also centrally located, houses some 59 specialist clinics and the latest suite of supporting medical facilities and services.

Other Medical Services

There are also many specialist clinics in Singapore offering services in dentistry and optometry.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT, ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY & DISCIPLINARY POLICY & PROCEDURES

Integrity is the bedrock value of Amity. It is when all students without exception adheres to the generally held values of good morals, ethics and honesty will be a pleasant and conducive environment that engenders the quest for academic excellence prevails.

This code of conduct and disciplinary policy will help remind all students of the standards that need to be met to create this environment and maintain integrity at Amity.

The Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy includes, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Academic Integrity

As an academic community dedicated to the creation, dissemination, and application of knowledge, Amity is committed to fostering an intellectual and ethical environment based on the principles of academic integrity. Academic integrity is essential to the success of the institution's educational and research missions, and violations constitute serious offenses within the entire academic community.

1.1 Violations of the Amity's Guidelines for Academic Integrity include, but are not limited to:

a. Cheating

Either intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, people, or study aids in any academic exercise; providing to, or receiving from another person, any kind of unauthorized assistance on any examination or assignment.

b. Fabricating Academic Materials

Unauthorized reproduction, falsification, lack of attribution, or invention of any information or citations in an academic exercise.

c. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty/ Plagiarism

Intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one's own in any academic exercise.

- No student shall represent the work of another person as his own in any academic assignment, thesis or project even if the material so represented constitutes only a part of the work submitted.
- No student shall contribute any work to another student if he knows or should know that the latter may submit the work in part of whole as his own.
- Receipt of payment in whatever form of work contributed shall raise a presumption that the Student had such knowledge.

- Any student found to have committed or aided and abetted the offence of plagiarism may be subjected to the disciplinary actions as per the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy.

d. Offering Bribes, Favours, or Threats

Bribing, attempting to bribe, promising favours to, or making threats against any person with the intention of affecting a record of a grade or evaluation of academic performance; any conspiracy with another person who then takes, or attempts to take action on behalf of, or at the direction of the student.

e. Examination by Proxy

Taking or attempting to take an exam for someone else is a violation by both the student enrolled in the course and the proxy or substitute.

f. Probation

Probation may be imposed for a specific period of time, during which the student's behaviour will be closely observed and monitored. The student must demonstrate that he or she is capable of functioning in a way which does not violate the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy. Any misconduct by the student while on disciplinary probation may result in additional and, possibly more severe, disciplinary action. Additional restrictions and conditions may be added to the terms of the probation. If all the terms of the probation have been met, it will be lifted. Failure to meet the terms of the probation may lead to further disciplinary action. Probation will be noted on the student's permanent record during the period of probation.

8.2 Developmental Sanctions

a. Community Service Hours

Community services hours must be completed

- At a non-profit organization,
- Under the supervision of an employee or volunteer coordinator who is not a relative of the student, and
- Without payment or other compensation for the work performed. Community service hours may not count towards service learning hours or other community service required by another program, scholarship, or organization. Students must obtain prior written approval for their intended service.

b. Educational Experience or Project

Educational experiences or projects include any activity or project that provides space for students to reflect upon their conduct, identify harm to self or to the community, and/or educate other students about the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy. Students must provide written verification of their completion of the experience/project and must schedule a meeting with the Department Head - Quality Assurance and Compliance to discuss their experience/project.

c. Recommendations for Assistance

A recommendation may be made for the student to seek assistance from various resources (eg. counseling services). Contact with these resources is voluntary. Communication with resources that provide confidential services will be made with the student's consent.

8.3 Academic Sanctions

a. Class Removal or Re-assignment

A sanction that removes a student from a class or requires a student to move into a different class or cohort.

b. Grade Modification (either for specific assignment/test or for the module)

A recommendation to the lecturer for the assignment of a failing grade or modified grade for a module, assignment, presentation, or examination following a finding that the student violated the academic policies as described in this Policy. No grade will be modified without the consent of the teacher. The student may also be required to redo the original assignment or paper, and/or retake the examination only with the consent of the teacher. Final approval of grade modification will be given by Examination Board of Amity.

c. Class Re-instatement

When a student has been found responsible for academic misconduct, Amity reserves the right to reinstate a student into the class in which the alleged misconduct occurred, if the student was previously allowed to withdraw in order to impose a grade adjustment or modification.

8.4 Elevated Sanctions

a. Withholding Degree / Diploma

Amity may withhold awarding the diploma or degree (in case of External Partner Institution programmes) otherwise earned until the completion of the handling of discipline issues procedures as set forth in the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy, including the completion of all sanctions imposed, if any.

a specified period of time and includes

- Both a withdrawal from all classes and a prohibition on registration and/or enrolment in classes until the end of the suspension period; and
- Revocation of all student privileges and rights related to access to and participation in school's facilities (subject to arrest for trespassing and a charge of failure to comply), resources, activities, and events (including graduation privileges).

b. Suspension

Suspension means temporary exclusion from the school for

A student may be required to fulfill one or more conditions during the period of suspension in order to qualify for readmission. The student has the right to re-enter the school or have their privileges reinstated after the specified time only if the student provides the required verification that the conditions of suspension, if any, have been met. A student who is suspended from the school is nonetheless responsible for all financial obligations to the school that he or she incurred.

c. Dismissal

Dismissal means exclusion from the school for a specified period of time, after which the student must reapply to be considered for admission. Re-admission is not automatic or guaranteed. Each case shall be reviewed by the appropriate Programme Head or designated staff with full knowledge of the disciplinary dismissal. Dismissal includes

- Both a withdrawal from all classes and a prohibition on registration/enrolment in classes; and
- Revocation of all student privileges and rights related to access to and participation in institution facilities (subject to arrest for trespassing and a charge of failure to comply), resources, activities, and events including graduation privileges.

A student may also be required to fulfill one or more conditions prior to becoming eligible for readmission. A student who is dismissed is nonetheless responsible for any and all financial obligations to the school that he/she incurred.

d. Expulsion

Expulsion is the permanent exclusion from the Amity and immediate termination of all rights and privileges associated with student status with no opportunity for re- application or readmission. A student who is expelled from the school is nonetheless responsible for all financial obligations to the school he/she incurred. This action may include, in consultation with Programme Head, the cancellation of graduation privileges and the withdrawal of or refusal to award diplomas.

e. Misrepresentation and Defamatory Behaviour:

At Amity Global Institute, we are committed to fostering an environment of integrity, respect, and ethical conduct. All students are expected to uphold these values both on campus and in their interactions with the broader community, including online platforms and social media.

Misrepresentation of facts, slander, and the spread of false or defamatory information regarding the institution, its staff, students, or any affiliated individuals or organizations, is strictly prohibited. Such actions can severely damage the reputation of the institution and its community, and as such, will not be tolerated.

Any student found engaging in these activities, whether knowingly or through negligence, may be subject to serious disciplinary actions. Consequences may include, but are not limited to, formal reprimands, suspension, or in severe cases, expulsion from the institution.

Students are advised to think critically before sharing information and to verify facts from credible sources to avoid the unintentional spread of misinformation. The institution values transparency and accountability, and students are encouraged to raise concerns through appropriate channels rather than engaging in damaging behaviour.

■ STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT & DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Handling of Misconduct and Disciplinary Issues

- a. Reporting Student Misconduct
 - Amity encourages public, staff or students to report violations of Amity's Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy by filing a formal complaint.
 - Reports may be made utilizing the Amity's incident reporting forms. The completed forms shall be forwarded to qac@singapore.amity.edu / feedback@singapore.amity.edu.
 - The school also accepts feedback/ complaints in hard copy (e.g. letter or fax) or soft copy (e.g. email).
 - To report non-academic misconduct, please use the Student Misconduct Report available at the reception.
 - To report academic misconduct, please use the Academic Integrity Incident Report.
- Complaints will be reviewed by Quality Assurance and Compliance department, and if there is reliable information indicating that misconduct may have occurred, the Handling of Student's Misconduct process will be initiated, creating a conduct case. Principal reserves the right to initiate a case without a formal complaint and to investigate anonymous reports.
- b. Complaint
 - A complaint should be filed as soon as possible after the alleged misconduct occurred and should describe the incident, the alleged violation(s) of the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy, and identify the individuals involved in or witness to the misconduct.
- Additional materials that support the complaint should be submitted (e.g. photos, written correspondence, copies of emails and/or texts).
- Upon review, if the complaint does not contain adequate documentation, the complainant may be contacted to provide additional information or clarification regarding the incident.
- c. False Complaint
 - Amity considers the intentional filing of a false complaint as a serious matter. It is a violation to make an intentionally false complaint.

Initiation of the Handling of Student's Misconduct Process

Upon receiving a complaint, the Quality Assurance and Compliance department will review the information acquired from the complainant and may conduct an initial investigation to determine if there is sufficient information to proceed with the Handling of Student's Misconduct Conduct process. The school gives an acknowledgement or initial response to the feedback / complaint within 3 working days.

Preliminary meetings with the complainant and/or witnesses may occur prior to initiating the Handling of Student's Misconduct process or contacting the respondent. If the respondent is contacted about the case during the initial investigation, he/she will be made aware that an investigation is occurring which could result in the initiation of the misconduct process. Quality Assurance and Compliance department will formally contact the respondent only by emails and organise an initial investigative meeting, where applicable.

The initial investigation outcomes include, but are not limited to:

a. Case Not Pursued

If there does not appear to be credible or sufficient information to suggest that a violation occurred, the complaint will not move forward through the formal Handling of Student's Misconduct process. The complaint and any information gathered during the preliminary investigation will be retained by the Quality Assurance and Compliance department to document that the situation was reviewed.

b. Informal Response

If the conduct described in the complaint does not appear to be a violation (such as repeated low-level behaviours) or falls outside the jurisdiction of the policy, there may still be an institutional response without initiation of the formal Handling of Student's Misconduct Conduct process. For example, the Student may be asked to meet with a staff member to discuss about the misconduct or participate in a mediated conversation.

c. Mutual Agreement

For relatively minor infractions of the conduct code, where

- The Student accepts responsibility

- for the misconduct; and
- Both the Student and complainant agree to a sanction or sanctions prescribed by the Quality Assurance and Compliance department
- A final decision reflecting that mutual agreement may be issued. That decision will reflect that there will be no subsequent proceedings or right to appeal. The decision that is issued in these circumstances should be signed by both parties, and should specifically reflect the following:
 - That the Student accepts responsibility for violation of the specific misconduct related to their incident;
- d. Deadlines are per Feedback and Grievance Procedure
 - All the deadlines related to Complaint Review Process will be in line with the Feedback and Grievance Procedure.
 - The school gives an acknowledgement or initial response to the feedback / complaint within 3 working days.
 - The school targets to resolve feedback / complaints within 14 working days, up to a maximum of 21 working days.
 - If the Student still refuses to accept the second solution before the maximum of 21 working days, the school will propose that the matter to be resolved through the Dispute Resolution Scheme of the SkillsFuture Singapore.
 - All feedback / complaints (including disputes) and the actions taken to resolve them are filed in the School's Complaint Log that also provides information on the nature of complaint / grievance and the time taken to resolve.
- e. Disciplinary Sanctions

Amity will impose serious penalties on students who

- are found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy. The following penalties may be imposed:
- Suspension
 - Dismissal
 - Expulsion
 - Zero mark / Fail grade (as per Partner University's Policies and advise of Academic & Examination Board's advice for Amity's programmes)
 - Re-doing / Re-submitting of assignments or reports (as per Partner University's Policies and advise of Academic & Examination Board's for Amity's programmes)
 - Verbal or written warning.

f. Students' Rights

- Students shall have the right to:
- Receive and participate in a fair and impartial review of the behaviour described in the complaint
 - Be provided with and informed about the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy, which is found in the Student Handbook and available in hardcopy with the Student Management Department and Quality Assurance and Compliance Department for ready reference
 - Be provided with a notice of the filing of a complaint, a copy of the complaint, notice of the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy alleged to have been violated, an opportunity to provide a written response, and an explanation of the procedures for resolution
 - Have an opportunity to review materials relevant to the complaint in a timely manner and receive updates regarding any progress related to the misconduct proceedings

- Have an opportunity to be heard through the appropriate resolution process
- Be free from compulsory self-incrimination regarding behaviours that may also be the subject of criminal charges, and from a presumption of responsibility as a result of a student's decision not to self-incriminate
- Request an appeal based on the grounds described in the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy
- Have the misconduct disciplinary records kept confidential consistent with the provisions the Personal Data Protection Act 2012, except as otherwise required by law or legal process or as per requirements of regulatory bodies including the external university partner institutions

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Students involved in the Handling of Student's Misconduct process are expected to:

- a. Treat others with respect and dignity. Students who fail to respect the rights of others may be excused from a proceeding and the process will continue in his/her absence.
- b. Review, understand, and comply with all Amity's rules, policies, and procedures as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy.
- c. Monitor their email (which is in Amity's records usually provided by the Student at the time of admission or updated by the Student through Student Request Form) to which all correspondence and written notices will be sent.
- d. Review all communications and written notices and seek clarification if there are questions.
- e. Cooperate fully in the misconduct process and to present truthful information. Any student found to have willfully presented false or misleading information or to have withheld information may be subjected to further disciplinary action.
- f. Appear at and participate in all proceedings. If a student, having been provided written notice, fails to appear at a hearing or meeting and fails to produce an explanation acceptable to the hearing officers/committee prior to the proceeding, the hearing may occur in the student's absence and sanctions will be imposed based on the information available.
- g. Provide to the Quality Assurance and Compliance department the names of individuals serving as advisors, legal counsel, and witnesses and arrange for their attendance at conduct proceedings as described in the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy.
- h. Comply with and complete all disciplinary sanctions imposed. The Quality Assurance and Compliance department monitoring a student's compliance with any sanction may impose additional sanctions if the student does not successfully complete the sanctions issued through previous conduct proceedings.

APPEAL PROCESS

The Quality Assurance and Compliance department will review all requests for appeal to determine if the respondent has asserted appropriate grounds for appeal. Appeals will not be granted based solely on a student's disagreement with the outcome.

a. Filing an Appeal

The respondent may file a request for appeal no later than ten (10) days after receipt of the outcome of the hearing where the respondent has been found responsible for violating one or more of the Student Code of Conduct & Disciplinary Policy. The request for appeal must be submitted through the Student Conduct Appeal Request Form and must include

- A statement explaining the grounds for the appeal
- All relevant supporting evidence and documentation and
- The desired outcome of the appeal request

b. Grounds for Appeal

An appeal must be based upon one or more of the following grounds:

• Procedural Error

A procedural error occurred in the handling of the complaint which substantially affected the outcome of the hearing.

• New Evidence

New evidence exists, sufficient to alter a decision, which was not available at the time of the original hearing. Information will not be considered "new evidence" if the respondent or complainant did not attend the original hearing or voluntarily withheld information during the original hearing.

• Sanction(s) not Commensurate with Violation(s)

The sanction(s) imposed are not commensurate with the violation(s) for which the respondent was found responsible. A respondent may only utilize this appeal option where the hearing outcome included a sanction of suspension, Dismissal, or expulsion.

4.1.1.11 Information for Appeal Review

The Appeal Committee will, except as required to explain the basis of new evidence, limit its review to the record of the initial hearing, including any documents or written statements considered by the hearing officer/committee, and any supporting documents and statements submitted by the Student as part of the appeal process.

4.1.1.12 Relief Available on Appeal

The decision of the Appeal Committee and any decision resulting from a remand hearing or review are final and no further appeals are allowed. All decisions shall be reported to the student, the complainant, and all appropriate Amity administrators. Appeal Committee members will not be the same members, who were involved in the original Referral Committee and will ensure that there is no conflict of interest.

4.1.1.13 Issuance of Decision

The Appeal Committee will issue its written decision to the respondent within a reasonable period of time not to exceed 7 working days from the date the appeal was received.

4.1.1.14 Finality of Decision

The decision of the Appeal Committee and any decision resulting from a remand hearing or review are final and no further appeals are allowed. All decisions shall be reported to the student, the complainant, and all appropriate Amity administrators. Appeal Committee members will not be the same members, who were involved in the original Referral Committee and will ensure that there is no conflict of interest.
